MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Nominations for Full-Time Instructors for Assignment to the Office of Training in Support of Administrative Training (Personnel)

REFERENCE : Memorandum from Director of Personnel to Deputy Director (Support) dated 1 April 1955, re same subject

1. There is transmitted herewith a list of four candidates nominated by the Director of Personnel for your consideration in connection with your need for one full-time instructor in the field of personnel.

2. Colonel White has seen this list and has indicated that while he raised no objection to the consideration of [REDACTED] he felt that because of the imminent departure of [REDACTED] from this staff, he would not care to have his entire career management and personnel programs disrupted by the departure of anyone else from this area at this time.

3. It would be appreciated if you would be good enough to inform us of your final decision as to the person whom you eventually select for this assignment.
